JAPAN MUST KEEP PEACE

Considers the German Menace in Siberia Direct Threat Against Far East

(By Associated Press)
London, March 2.—The Reuters dispatch has issued a statement from an authoritative Japanese source in London, as to Japan's situation in the east. He said: "Japan has issued no suggestion regarding any action that may be necessary as a result of the Russian situation. The plan first announced a few days ago was that Japan had inquired of the Allied Government for an expression of their view on the latest development in Russia. There has been no move, military or otherwise by Japan. It is pointed out that Japan did not enter the war under any agreement that should suggest that they wanted more territory in the minds of the Japanese.

"The German menace in the east is a direct threat against Japan and it involves the welfare of that country. Japanese interpretation of her position is that she is responsible for the security of peace in the far east. A German menace has existed in the east in Siberia even before the late Russian development and it is a situation that must be met with force."

Plans Contemplate Expansion in All of These Towns

Readers of the Herald are beginning to realize that there are going to be big things and they have had no doubt of just what was going on and what was being done along the business growth of our industries. With the opening up of the plants along the river and the rapid growth at the navy yard. The Herald's predictions as to the prosperity that would some day come to Portsmouth and her sister towns have been fully realized. The bustling spirit inculcated into our citizens by this paper has caught the entire section.

Portsmouth can and will do things.

has been the policy of this paper and it has been the policy of this paper to boost and go after things for the best interests of this section, in spite of the "Can't do it" and "Not all" shouters. We must have more homes for the workers and all this section will benefit. Don't stop boosting—let's keep pushing. Our men and women are working to build ships to win the war and they will make as good a record as any section of the country. Secretary Daniels said the men at the navy yard would do their duty and they are doing it. Let's make it unanimous and pull our shoulders to the wheel.

SHIP BOARDS TO SEIZE HOTELS AND HOUSES

(By Associated Press)

Washington, March 2.—Before proceeding with construction of housing for shipyard workers of the Shipping Board, it was announced tonight, will commandeer all available empty hotels, apartment houses and residences in cities near where ships are being built. In this way it is expected to supply accommodations for thousands of workmen.

The $50,000,000 housing bill, signed today by President Wilson, authorizes the board to commandeer not only houses and land but transportation systems as well. It is generally expected that land on which houses are to be built will be commandeered in most instances to prevent speculative prices.

ROCHESTER

Rochester, March 2.—Edward E. Evans, a well known farmer, in the west part of the city died last evening at his home after an illness of twenty weeks. He was born in the house where he died, and always resided there being the son of William and Hannah (Shannon) Evans. He received his education in the district school and Sandwell seminary and had served on the board of selectmen under the old town system. He belonged to Crown Point Grange, Stratford Corner, and was 73 years of age. He is survived by a wife, three sons, Dr. Geo. E. Evans of Bramford, Conn., Dr. Joseph H. Evans of Giltford, Conn., and Dr. Roscoe Evans of this city, and a brother and sister, Assessor Charles W. Evans and Mrs. Susan Brock of this city.

The fourth quarterly conference was held last evening in the East Rochester Methodist church, District Superintendent T. Ross Hicks presiding. The following officers were elected: Trustees: Sidney B. Hayes, George D. Emery, Albert R. Richards, John I. Shapleigh, James Pringle, Charles S. Clark, J. William McClellan, Irving C. Frances, Harry Varney, Stowards: Sidney B. Hayes, Albert L. DOVER

Dover, March 2.—Mrs. Melissa B. Baker, wife of John Baker, a well known resident of this city, died at the home of her sister Mrs. John Brock at 21 South Union street, Lowell, Mass. Mrs. Baker was a resident of this city for many years. She was a member of the American Washington Lodge, U. O. of I. G. L. of this city. The funeral services were held at the home of her sister yesterday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock and were attended by many relatives and friends.

The boys of the Dover High school will go to the Three Rivers Farm of U. W. Collins again tomorrow, where they expect to complete their work in the campaign which they have been conducting for the past five weeks. Up to this point the boys have cut and piled 32 cords of wood, for which they have been paid $250. The amount of money they have earned will be given to the School Athletic association.

EXETER

Exeter, March 2.—The committee consisting of Clarence Gitchell, John M. Wadleigh, Wendell B. Folsom, Albert N. Dow, Luke Leighton and Daniel G. Giddings, appointed to recommend what sums are necessary for expenditures for the town, has reported as follows: State tax, $9,000; county tax, $1,131.17; payment of town bonds, $2,000; interest on town debt, $2,800; water works, $2,500; fire department, $5,000; highways, bridges and streets, $10,000; maintenance, South Side road, $1,000; preventing the spread of insect pests, $750; support of poor, $500; public library, $2,500; decorating graves, $150; lighting streets, $5,500; police and constables, $5,000; salaries of town officers, $1,150; board of health, $500; miscellaneous, $1,000; oil for streets, $2,500; permanent improvement, main highways, $1,800; white pine rust, $250.

Major Guy Boyer of the British and Canadian recruiting mission, who is making a tour of New Hampshire and Vermont, will be here this evening and speak to the members of the Phillips Exeter academy battalion, and students of the academy.

Wilhelm Segerblom, instructor in chemistry at the academy, has completed a model class report of the class of 1932, covering its 25th anniversary, which was celebrated last June. It is an attractive pamphlet of 108 pages, bound in the school colors. It contains reports of the reunion of the class by its class secretary, Dr. George S. Amason, and by the bulletin, a statement by the compiler, poems, "The Academy in Exeter," "The College Bell," by Charles N. Holmes, and many other articles of interest, including the "92 Men in the Great War."

There will be no session of superior court until Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Judge Oliver W. Branch left last night, and there was no session Friday.

Bishop Edwin Hughes drew a large audience at the Methodist church last evening.

Concord, March 1.—The only way that the New Hampshire housekeeper can get sugar, said Mr. Huntley N. Spaulding, food administrator for New Hampshire here today, is to save it. As ingenious statisticians in Washington have taken a little time off and worked out just what it means every time a teaspoonful of sugar is wasted and has come to some very interesting conclusions.

A single teaspoonful of sugar wasted by every person in the United States in one day means a total waste of 770 tons. If the waste were to go on every day it would mean a loss of 281,250 tons a year. The money lost at ten cents per pound for this sugar would be more than $55,000,000.

Translated into terms of airplanes at $15,000 a plane the lost teaspoonful of sugar would, had it been saved, purchase to fight the Boches, 3720 airplanes. Of course, not everyone is going to waste a teaspoonful of sugar a day, but the probability is that some are. The moral is very obvious. The surest way to help the Germans win the war is to waste your own food.

Concord, March 1.—Word has just been received at the food administration headquarters here from Washington that the French people are now actually living from hand to mouth and that any accident will result in a national disaster.

A complete food survey of France has just been taken and it resulted in the discovery that there was on hand there only enough wheat and flour to sustain the civilian population for three days. This means that starvation will come in France to the families of the soldiers who are in the front line trenches should any serious interruption occur in the transportation of food from North America to Europe.

That probability that an interruption in transportation which would be serious, is slight, but it remains for the individual householder in the U. S. to determine whether there is to be food enough to send across. Our surplus has gone already, we can send now only what we save.

Officially, every saving that is possible is being made. A report from the Quartermaster's Department of the United States army shows that from 2 weeks beginning December 1, 1917, there has been a large material decrease in the consumption of food on the part of men in the ranks. The figures are based upon the average daily consumption of 1000 men for the year 1913 of the 93 principal subsistence articles, compared with the figures for 1917. The report shows that the average daily issue of flour was reduced from 1000 pounds in 1913 to 350 pounds in 1917. That bacon was reduced from 100 pounds to 46 pounds; sugar from 300 to 234; butter from 120 to 13, and lard from 25 to 9.

The soldiers who have accomplished this saving have moreover just as much to eat as they ever had, as they have been fed more of such items as fish, vegetables and cheese, which the national food administration and the state administrations are making for them.

APPOINT CONCORD MAN STATION AGENT

E. B. Nash of Concord has been appointed temporary station agent of the Manchester station of the Boston and Maine railroad, and has already taken up his duties, made vacant by the death of George R. Manchester. Mr. Nash, has with the exception of a few years, been in the service of the Boston and Maine road for over 20 years and is well known in railroad circles.

Mr. Nash entered the employ of the road at Concord, June 17, 1897, as a freight brakeman. He remained at Concord, serving in various capacities until 1908 when he entered the employ of the United Fruit Company as a conductor in Boreas del Torco, Panama. After staying on the Isthmus for two years, he returned to Concord and re-entered the employ of the Boston and Maine road in 1911.

VENICE BEING RUINED

London, March 1.—Gotha airplanes dropped over one hundred bombs on Venice Tuesday night out of sheer lust for destruction. The bombs fell close to the aqueduct, the Bridge of Sighs and Saint Mark's Cathedral. The despatch suggests these escaped serious damage. Elsewhere the damage was grave. Two convents were struck and many more the victims. One-third of all houses in Venice are now reported ruined.

AIR RAIDS SCARE GERMANS

London, March 1.—Reports are wide by printed that Germany is trying to get the King of Spain to propose a cessation of all raids on towns outside of the zone of host operations. Such reports have reached the Foreign Office but unofficially. The gentle King is doing the only act that he regards as being death—both their own devilish novelties. It is certainly a sight to make a Methodist weep.

Corns! Stop Hurting. Then They Lift Out With Fingers

No pain or soreness! Corns and calluses just shrivel up and lift off—Try it!

A noted Cincinnati chemist discovered a new other compound and called it freestone and it now tells us in tiny bottles for a few cents from any drug store.

You simply apply a few drops of freestone upon a tender corn or painful callus and instantly the soreness disappears, then shortly you will find the corn or callus so loose that you can just lift it off with the fingers. Really! No rubbing! No pain, not a bit of soreness, either when applying freestone or afterwards and it doesn't even irritate the skin.

High corns, soft corns or blisters between the toes, also roughened calluses just shrivel up and lift off so easy. It is wonderful! Works like a charm. Keep it on the dresser.

Democracy Fighting for Democracy.

A few days ago this paper touched on the subject of American democracy as represented in the most democratic of all forms of government, the town meeting, and at about the same time this article appeared there was a very different and very striking illustration of the pure democracy of the greatest democracy on earth.

This was the review in New York city of the soldiers in training at Camp Upton on Long Island, only a few miles from New York. There were 10,000 men in the line, which was reviewed by high military officers and civic officials, and the spectacle was one to thrill the heart of every loyal American, no matter from what part of the world he or his ancestors came.

The soldiers were a healthy and hardy body of men and every movement showed the results of thorough training. But the striking feature was the mighty admixture of races in the ranks. A published account of the inspiring scene says: "Swarthy Armenians strode side by side with fair-haired Scandinavians; Irish boys rubbed elbows with Jews; Italians trudged beside Poles; here and there was a Chinaman, and here and there was a face that was typically Yankee. But every one of them was a citizen of the United States."

There was a picture that thrilled the hundreds of thousands of spectators, and well it might. There was a display of the flower of democracy preparing to fight the battles of democracy, and they will do it, shoulder to shoulder, as they marched through the streets of the metropolis on that winter day. In that imposing line all were Americans, and in the performance of their grim work on the battle-fronts all will be Americans fighting for one flag and for the principle of freedom and the right to self-government everywhere on the face of the earth.

Democracy has its faults and its weaknesses because human nature is not free from faults and weaknesses, but as established and maintained in this country it is the best and most just form of government in the world. And while the United States has no intention or desire to force this form of government upon any other nation, it has drawn the sword in defense of the principles it represents and embodies, and that sword will not be sheathed until the iron rule of militarism shall have perished from the earth.

It is a privilege and a pleasure to live in such a democracy as ours, and it is a high privilege to fight for the principles it represents when the need arises. And the need is now at hand. The rule of "Blood and Iron" is attempting to pass its crushing and grasping hand over the face of the earth, but liberty-loving peoples everywhere rise as one and cry, "No!"

And in the unprecedented world struggle the greatest democracy in the world is bearing its proper part. Its armies represent all races molded into a harmonious whole, fighting under a flag that floats for the principles of national freedom and individual liberty.

It is something to be proud of. Such an army can not fail, and it will not fail.

A New Hampshire College professor urges the farmers of the state to help the country at this trying time by raising great quantities of apples. This is a crop that cannot be doubled up on short notice like corn, potatoes or wheat, but it is a very valuable crop, in time of war or peace, and the man who makes his orchard do its best will contribute in an effective way toward the increase in food supplies which is so greatly needed.

Chocolate is not the most important commodity on the market today, but it is highly prized by the soldiers and "the girls they left behind them," consequently the destruction of 1,000,000 pounds by fire in Pennsylvania the other day made anything but pleasant reading.

There are bills before the New York Legislature providing for statewide prohibition during the war, and also for state constitutional prohibition. If the state wants prohibition why does it not adopt the amendment to the national constitution and let it go at that?

There is a movement on foot to attach a department of education to the government, with its head occupying a seat in the president's cabinet. Possibly this might be a good thing, but to many it will seem that it could well wait till the end of the war.

The Germans claim that they have a surprise in store for the Americans on the western front when operations begin in earnest. But the "surprise" business is something which is liable to work both ways.

Perhaps the fact that each American soldier will need nine pairs of shoes a year may have something to do with the high prices of foot wear.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Let the Girls Piddle
(From the Chicago News)
This year's lopsided... cannot would better stop before. It begins, as the country has need of all its able-bodied men.

Would Be Useless to Judge
(From the Providence Journal)
With Russia lying torn and bleeding in the enemy's path, it makes little difference whether history finally judges Trotsky a knave or a fool.

A Proper Use of Money
(From the Brooklyn Eagle)
The Carnegie Institute gives $1,000,000 to McGill University, Montreal, in recognition of its war work. That is well. The money of a distinguished pacifist was never better employed.

A Mad People
(From the New York Commercial)
History relates stories of waves of temporary insanity which deprived whole people of their reason. Does this account for what is happening in Russia. As the saying goes, "Whom the gods would destroy they first make mad."

Hard Luck for Massachusetts
(From the Hartford Courant)
Things are in pretty bad shape in poor old Massachusetts. We read that children in the public schools of Massachusetts are being seized and vaccinated without the knowledge and against the wishes of their parents. If this is the regular policy of the state, the prospect of these or any other children ever securing the smallpox is practically nil. Hard luck!

When Germany Will Be Good
(From the Springfield Republican)
Germany refuses to accept President Wilson's principles on the explicit ground that England is not ready to apply the principle of self-determination to Ireland, Egypt and India. Let the British empire smash up like the Russian empire, let its naval bases be abandoned, let all possibility of resisting German demands be renounced, and then Germany will be good. Russia is eloquent testimony as to just how good Germany would be.

A Proper Appreciation
(From the Springfield Union)
Let us say a good word for the coal dealer, who has so often come in for more than his share of abuse. He has passed through a very trying experience, in fact, is by no means out of it, and he has managed to take care of his regular customers and the public in general in a manner that is worthy of commendation. In every instance he appears to have done his level best to avert suffering and make his limited supply go as far as possible. As a factor in distribution he has shown efficiency and no small degree of patience and tact. His conduct should not lack for appreciation.

Japan's Opportunity
(From the Syracuse Post-Standard)
The Germans are taking what of the Baltic provinces and Russian Poland they think may be useful to them. The Swedes are helping themselves to islands in the Baltic. The Ukrainians and Finns and Crimeans are forming their own republics while the going is good, with no power in Russia strong enough to stay them. If Japan fails herself to intervene in Russian helplessness to assume control of Manchuria and to hold Vladivostok against the day when Russia shall have a government strong and sane enough to do business, the Japanese will show a spirit of generous reserve and tolerance superior to the European brand.

New Set Your Teeth and Hold On
(From the Springfield Republican)
Von Hertling's speech amply confirms recent statements in the German press that the pan-Germans were in full control, and that the flurry of controversy over annexations during the Brest-Litovsk negotiations really concerned not the Baltic provinces but the west, where the business interests of the Rhine demand expansion to offset that in the east. The Hindenburg has made his great offensive Germany will not be willing to concede anything. Even to right Belgium's wrongs as they are in honor bound to do, the Allies must brace themselves for a long, hard fight; they can win it if they will set their teeth and hold on.

Fit For Hemp Neckties
(From the Syracuse Post-Standard)
That dealer in army cloth were able through conspiracy with department clerks, to make illicit profits amounting in the aggregate to millions is not an amazing thing. Profiteering is an inevitable in war as in peacetime. The only concern we need feel over the disclosures which have been made is what shall be done with them. If the Government shall punish relentlessly the breach of faith it has suffered, if every profiteer is put under compulsion to pay back all he has stolen plus, if the dealers who have abused the confidence shown them are removed from the market, the experience the Government has had will not be without its value.

We know just as soon as Uncle Sam began to buy goods in vast amounts that the profiteers would seek ways to beat him. We have discovered now the offenders we knew would be amongst us, and how they operated. We owe it to our country, to every American who is investing money in his country, to every soldier who wears the uniform of his country, to punish the profiteers to the limit, that there may be an abrupt ending of this sort of money making.

Tantalizing And Annoying
(From the New York Times)
Pauline Flotka, a Chicago girl, found it necessary to shoot and kill her lover. She was subjected to the inconvenience of arrest, but was duly freed by the coroner's jury, whose verdict was thus explained:

The evidence shows that Anton Jindra's treatment of her was most tantalizing, annoying, and brutal; and because of this we believe the said Pauline Flotka should be given the benefit of the doubt, and we, the jury, recommends that she be released from custody.

The jury is to be commended for its straightforwardness and for its recognition of the present state of the law—not, indeed, as it is written, but as it is interpreted by juries. The law, as so interpreted, is that it is a capital crime to be "tantalizing, annoying, and brutal" toward a woman, and that the penalty of death may legally be inflicted on the spot by the person aggrieved. The law has been so interpreted in countless cases, but it is hidden by verbiage and false pretenses about "emotional insanity," "brain-storm," and the like; and before the inevitable verdict is reached the country is put to the expense of a trial with a pre-ordained conclusion, and the public is nauseated by the recital of all the offensive deeds in the slain man's life. Much simpler, much more direct, and much more honest is the way of the Chicago coroner's jury; and it has the additional merit of doing nothing to bring the courts into contempt.

A Massachusetts Iconoclast
(From the New York Herald)
Mr. Alvan T. Fuller, proceeds with his campaign to make himself unpopular with his fellow members of the national House of Representatives. Ever since he became a member of that body he has been hitting at the idols. Now he pronounces Congress "the most inefficient and expensive barnacle that ever attached itself to a ship of state"—which, it must be admitted, is saying a good deal.

Mr. Fuller apparently confines his criticism to the House of Representatives, using the "congress" of the colloquial. The particular object of his wrath is the Committee on Expenditures of the Interior Department, to which he was accorded membership. That he finds no use. It never was intended to be of use except as a landing place for Representatives' whose "faces" had to be saved by giving them the empty honor of committee membership somewhere. Being a business man and not a politician, Mr. Fuller cannot be expected to understand how valuable an adjunct to the political ship at Washington a committee of that kind may be. Sometimes it is a lifesaver.

Another count in Mr. Fuller's indictment is that "the majority of our Congressmen down here are telling stories and practicing up to see who can spit the farthest." It is evident that he has never mastered the intricacies of politics in the South and the West or the Representative from Malden would understand the value of practice in both lines. Under the practice which has grown to magnitude in recent years of "padding" legislation through it, the House has largely ceased to be a deliberative body. That does not mean, however, that it is not necessary to Mr. Fuller's mistake is in failing to differentiate between the House and its membership and methods.

Transforming Milwaukee
(From the Providence Journal)
Some gratifying news comes from Milwaukee, which for years has stood as one of the centers of German influence and population in the United States. The study of the German language in the grammar school grades of the city was very general up to last year. When the schools closed last June, the total enrollment in German courses was 20,588. Before the 1917-18 school year began, however, an arrangement was made by which the camp easier for parents to secure the discontinuance of German study by their children. Previously a person's visit to the school authorities had been required; now it was decided that only a written note was necessary. Accordingly the number of grammar school students of the language dropped to 23,309 in September, and there has been a further decrease during the present semester, so that the total falling off since last June is fifty per cent.

The tendency in the grammar grades is paralleled in the departmental grades of schools. The number of students of German there has been decreased from 3219 in September to 2607 now. In the high schools, also, the falling off has been from 428 to 323. Let the prophets of Kultur rage and the pro-Germans imagine a valuable thing. There will be general approval of the tendencies thus revealed in the schools of Milwaukee. We need less rather than more study of the German language and German institutions in this country. The intellectual vigor of the German should be vigorously discouraged. The Kaiser's insidious agencies for the replacement of our old ideas by Teutonic substitutes deserves to be combated at every step.

It is pleasant to hear from Milwaukee that the number of students of French and Italian is increasing. That is as it should be. No vigorous propaganda lies behind the study of these languages; there is no greedily ambitious Government at Paris or Rome intent upon forcing its mental and "moral" domination upon the world.

HELL ROARING JAKE SMITH IS DEAD

(By Associated Press)

Washington, March 2.—The death of Brig. General Jacob Hurd Smith, U. S. A., retired, at San Diego, recalls to the army officers here the picturesque career of the old fighter who was known as "Hell Roaring Jake Smith." Gen. Smith was in command in the Philippines and he cleared Samar of the outlaw bands that had terrorized that island for years. His methods were so effective and sovereign that he was court-martialed. Civilians were shocked at his methods, but among his fellow officers and the department he was given credit for doing a thorough job.

SENATE TO DRAFT ALL REACHING 21

Washington, March 2.—The administration amendment to the draft law to bring in men as they reach the age of 21 was brought up in the senate today as emergency legislation for immediate passage, but finally was put over until later.

Without discussion the senate passed another resolution authorizing the President to call into immediate military service skilled experts in industry or agriculture. The purpose of the latter has nothing to do with the much discussed conscription of labor but refers to men already registered whose position on the classification is so far down on the list that they may not be called for military duty in the near future. The purpose is to make these men available for draft and service in the lines in which they are expert. The resolution is yet to be acted upon by the house.

The hurried consideration of the first amendment was compelled by the insistence of Senator ew of Indiana, on consideration of his amendment for the registration for military training of all men between 19 and 30. Acting Chairman Frelinghuysen of the military committee explained that Provost Marshal General Crowder was eager to have the committee amendment adopted without delay as he wanted to include in the next draft the men affected.

NAVY YARD NOTES

Rush, Honor Guest of Newspaper Men
The members and friends of the Old Ironsides association of Boston, will give Captain William R. Rush, commandant of the Charlestown navy yard a complimentary luncheon at the Boston Press club, No. 3 Beacon street, Wednesday, at 12:15 o'clock.

The friends of Captain Rush are taking this opportunity to express their appreciation of his tender care of the "Constitution" (Old Ironsides) as well as his remarkable executive ability in handling the tremendous work incurred by the war's demands upon the first naval district, particularly the Charlestown navy yard.

Engineer Whalley Resigns.
Nathan Whalley, engineer in charge of the apparatus, who has held the position since 1885 with the exception of about 3 years, has resigned. Mr. Whalley has been in poor health for some weeks and felt that he should resign and when he handed in his letter to industrial Manager L. S. Adams it was accepted with much regret. He is 73 years of age and has been a faithful and untiring official. He was an expert in steam engineering and every man on the yard was his friend.

Visiting in Lewiston.
Assistant Surgeon A. L. Grant has returned from a visit of several days at his home in Lewiston, Me.

Sent Housing Report.
Industrial Manager Adams has forwarded his report on housing conditions. He expects the navy department will take prompt action on the matter.

New Acting Engineer in Charge.
George W. Heene of Kittery, who has been assistant to Mr. Whalley, has been appointed acting engineer in charge. He has been a faithful man on the job and all hope to see him secure the position.

To Speak in Manchester.
Thomas Mott Osborne, lieutenant-commander of the Portsmouth naval prison, will speak at the First Baptist church, Manchester, Friday evening, March 8, under auspices of the federation of churches.

Big Crowd of Men Off.
A large draft of men left on a forlough from the ships today. Some over a hundred went to Boston.

NORTH KITTERY

North Kittery, March 2.—The People's Society will hold services for Sunday, March 3, in the People's Society building, preaching by the pastor, Rev. Herbert W. Brooks; morning worship with sermon at 10:30; noon Sunday school directly following; evening service at 7:30.

A very successful business meeting of the People's Society was held last evening. Raymond G. Pettigrew was elected chairman of the entertainment committee for the month of March, and he appointed Mr. Walter Pettigrew and Mr. Carroll Pierce as members of the committee.

The sawmill operated by Hobson & Young has recently located on the Chick lot in North Kittery.

The Shapleigh school will open Monday, and it is understood that Miss Lulu Willard will teach the grammar grades, and that Mrs. Emily S. Pierce will teach the primary grades. Both Miss Willard and Mrs. Pierce are teachers of broad experience and the town is very fortunate in securing them.

Mr. John Weeks of North Kittery is slowly recovering after a long illness at his home.

The Alert Club will have a special meeting in the People's Society building, Sunday, March 3, directly after Sunday school and the president of the club requests that every member of the club be present during the Sunday school session.

DR. WILEY POKES FUN AT FLOUR SUBSTITUTES

"Why Not Send Them to the Allies?" Asks Food Expert.

Boston, March 2.—Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, the food expert, sounded last night the slogan of "fair treatment for the consumer" in a criticism of the conservation movement delivered by him at Ford hall before 150 members of the New England Federation for Rural Progress gathered for their 12th annual meeting and banquet. The speaker made fun of some of the "substitutes" pointed to cases of unfair discrimination and suggested that flour with 20 per cent substitute be sent to the allies, adding: "If they want to starve, let them starve."

Commissioner of Agriculture Elbert S. Brigham of St. Albans, Vt., presided, and President Kenyon L. Butterfield of the Massachusetts Agricultural College was toastmaster. The banquet took the form of a "conservation supper," planned by the New England section of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association, of which Miss Sarah Holmes is president. Reclamations were given by Catherine Ridge way.

Dr. Wiley expressed himself as in perfect sympathy with the administration in regard to food conservation and advised everybody to eat less than formerly. But he maintained that if the people co-operated with the food administration that administration must co-operate with the people.

"We want you," he said, "to save wheat, but the consumer wants fair treatment. The miller and the sugar refiner make a little more than they did and the wholesaler and retailer get a fair profit, but the consumer is getting it in the neck. I am willing that the housewife should buy 50-50 if the baker buys 60-40. Can't the allies at the bread we have eaten here tonight? Isn't that good enough for an Englishman or a Frenchman?"

"One man told me that we are making him pay double for his flour, but that he cannot eat the rest of the stuff he has to take with it, while the baker can buy and only pay one-fourth. The law empowers the President to close every brewery if he sees fit, but he hasn't seen fit. I don't believe in asking us consumers to save unless you ask the brewers to save. Why ask us to send grain to England while England is using up this material for the manufacture of beer? I would say, 'We will send you grain foods just as soon as you stop using grain foods for the making of beer.' France has already forbidden the use of grain."

AUTO SHOW OPENED TODAY

The sixteenth annual show of the Boston Automobile Dealers' Association opened in Mechanics Building Boston, this afternoon. It is a complete exposition of everything that is worth while in passenger cars, motor trucks and accessories. With over 350 exhibitors it is a remarkable demonstration of the resources of an industry in which America leads the world and which is so vital in the winning of the war.

The very large attendance in the early hours of the show indicate the usual great crowds will throng into the building. From a trade standpoint the attendance will be unusually large. Thousands of agents from every corner of New England and hundreds of factory officials from the great automobile manufacturing centers are here and the hotels are crowded.

The setting for the show is at once beautiful and dazzling. The wealth of color and the blaze of multicolored lights combining the highest possible art with the surroundings.

The magnificent scenic work is the production of the leadingmen of the country from original designs. From the immense proscenium arch and tremendous effect of the ceiling that is altogether different from anything previously attempted.

The balcony front presents a repeated design of Florentine, carving in dull gold and base reliefs between which are decorative lamps and garlands of the Italian order, backed by rich old rose fabrics.

Bronze gales with semi-circular tops are placed on either side of the main aisle. All are in first work of old bronze with beautifully modeled relief ornaments, flanked by corner posts surrounded by lofty electrolytes. The names of the exhibitors are inscribed on the portals.

Prismatic fountains play in the center of the main floor while the stage front is rendered in a style completely different from the former magnificent displays and yet to the critical art student more charming in treatment than ever before. The approach to the stage is under a curved marquee of crystal and bronze effects, on the apex of which a splendidly modeled figure of "Hope" holds aloft with one hand the gleaming torch of inspiration and with the garlands of plenty.

The call in modern art for rich deep tones finds its response this year in the wealth of beautiful colorings used by the designer in exhibition hall. The striking features in this section are the warmth and beauty of the combination of colors, the main aisle with its projecting feet work marquee and the transverse hangings in gold and colored lights.

Very few changes are to be noted in the 1918 models, and if the war continues the types of this year will be those of next, with refinements to be seen in many instances. Despite increases in prices of cars the present price is about $100 less than the average of three years ago.

A prominent mechanical change is the increase of average wheelbase from 113 1/4 to 120 3/4. Another is the enlarged engine size, the average piston displacement now being 269 cubic inches as against 222 last year. Because of the war many of the anticipations of a year ago have not been realized but each model exhibited, has some interesting points about it to hold attention. Never was there to be seen such a varied line of bodies, beautiful too as the present show offers.

The range of prices this year for the cars is from $445 to $8900.

All that is new in the accessory field will be found, but a canvass of the exhibits will bring out the fact this year, perhaps as never before, devices and attachments whose special function is to make the maintenance of an automobile a more economical proposition are a most conspicuous feature.

The motor truck department will hold an absorbing interest to the business man. There will be 56 different

The Board of Registrars will be in session at City Hall on the following dates: Tuesday, Feb. 19; Thursday, Feb. 21; Tuesday, Feb. 26; Friday, March 1; Tuesday, March 5; Wednesday, March 6, from 9 to 12 a. m., 2 to 5 and 7 to 9 p. m., to prepare check-lists for the Special Election on Tuesday, March 12, 1918.

Also on Election day from 8 to 12 a. m. for the purpose of granting certificates to those legal voters whose names have been omitted from the list.

makes ranging from a light delivery wagon to the huge ten ton trucks. The truck display will be the last word in commercial vehicles. All of the standard makers will have exhibits and every device that means economy in operation, or labor will be shown. There will be a vehicle for every kind of commercial use.

The problem of transportation is becoming more and more dependent upon the gasoline or electric truck and the exhibitors are looking forward to a wonderful week of selling.

Scores and scores of luncheons at which salesmen and other exhibitors will infect "pep" into the salesmen will be held during the week. Show week is reunion time for the trade and even though it is the busiest time of the year yet everyone manages to squeeze a few hours out of every 24 for some fun. The cafes and hotels are alive to this fact and all have arranged special programs for the visitors.

BRITISH LOSSES SMALLEST FOR MONTHS

(By Associated Press)
London, March 1.—British casualties reported during the month of February show a remarkable decrease as compared with the preceding months. They totaled only 18,991, divided as follows: Killed or died of wounds—officers, 333; men, 4012; missing—officers, 483; men, 14,263.
The casualties for January reached a total of 73,017 for December they were 79,527, while in November in which month there was severe fighting on the Cambrai front, they totaled 129,089.

UNION CANNOT DICTATE

In a full Supreme Court decision today an injunction was ordered against a musicians' union to prevent it from enforcing its rule requiring proprietors of the Strand Theatre at Haverhill to hire a five-piece orchestra instead of an organist and the court said that the act might be ille-

TRUTH SHOULD BE TOLD AT ALL TIMES

London, March 1.—Reference has often been made here to the harm done by withholding the truth from the public. Hon. Law gave a glaring example of this mistake when on Wednesday in the House of Commons he admitted that "the output of shipbuilding in January and also in February was very disappointing. We had already come to the conclusion that one of the best methods, perhaps the only method to put this right, is to let the people and the country, particularly the men in the shipyards, know the real position and how serious that position is. One of the main reasons why the tonnage losses have not been published is that we have to act with our Allies in this matter, who take the view that it is better not to publish the information. We are taking up the matter again with them." This is followed by the blunt complaint of Mr. U. N. Burnet, Minister of Labor, who declared on Tuesday that in January less than one half of the estimated output of shipping was reached. In February the position was no better. He appealed to the men to put their backs into the work, intimating that strikes "and shirkings" partly at least, caused the deficit. The newspapers are taking up the matter vigorously.

ANOTHER BOUT ADDED

As a result of the great interest in the boxing bout for Tuesday night, the Rockingham A. C. have added another preliminary bout. Two Millport boys are said to be very clever.
The great interest in the main bout between Johnny Wilson and Phikey Crosby, the navy champion, Wilson's reputation is well known and the men from the navy yard are backing their man to get the decision.

SEVERAL MEN AT EXETER WIN LETTERS

Hockey players have been awarded to the following Phillips Exeter Academy students: Captain W. S. Powers, '19; Munroe E. M. Taylor, '18; Capt.-elect A. J. Conlon, '19; R. C. Gilroy, '19; W. E. Hunt, '20; A. S. Burgess, '20.

HERE AND THERE WITH THE SPORTS

Young Chakras, the Manchester lightweight boxer, will meet the best man of his career when he meets Eddie Wallace the Brooklyn lightweight at Greenfield, Mass., next month. The management of the Greenfield club gave Chakras his choice of boxing with Rocky Kansas or Wallace some time ago and he selected Wallace. Eddie Wallace is a real headliner. He has boxed every lightweight and featherweight of note in the country with but few exceptions. Benny Leonard, Willie Jackson, Johnny Dundee, Johnny Kibane and Cissy Cline are numbered among his opponents. He got the decision over Willie Jackson in Boston, but later on Frankie Brit trimmed him. Cleverness is his best bet and should Chakras make even a half decent showing with him he will receive a big boost in the game.

Jim London, of Dayton, Ohio, heavyweight wrestler, who has been stopping in Lowell, Mass., has been "the" man in the side of a lot of stars of the game. Although well under the 200 pound mark, he has held his own on two occasions with Strangler Lewis, once for 2-1-2 hours, and later for over three hours. He is a high type of Greek youth, very clever and powerful and his defense is so strong that even Lewis could not solve it, and had to be content with a division of the honors on the two occasions they have met.

A DAGGER IN THE BACK

That's the woman's dread when she gets up in the morning to start the day's work. "Oh! how my back aches!" GOLD MEDAL Haavlem Oil Capsules taken today ease the backache of tomorrow—taken every day ends the backache for all time. Don't delay.

What's the use of suffering? Begin taking GOLD MEDAL Haavlem Oil Capsules today and be relieved tomorrow. Take three or four every day and be permanently free from wrenching, distressing back pain. But be sure to get GOLD MEDAL. Since 1896 GOLD MEDAL Haavlem Oil has been the National Remedy of Holland, the Government of Netherlands having granted a special charter authorizing its preparation and sale. The housewife of Holland would almost as soon be without bread as she would without her "Real Dutch Drops," as she quaintly calls GOLD MEDAL Haavlem Oil Capsules. This is the one reason why you will find the women and children of Holland so sturdy and robust.

GOLD MEDAL is the pure, original Haavlem Oil Capsules imported direct from the laboratories in Haarlem, Holland. But be sure to get GOLD MEDAL. Look for the name on every box. Sold by reliable druggists in sealed packages, three sizes. Money refunded if they do not help you. Accept only the GOLD MEDAL. All others are imitations.

COUNTRY CLUB ASSEMBLY

The series of dancing assemblies for the members of the Country Club are to be resumed with the next one Tuesday evening at Pierce hall, with the Mardens furnishing music. While the annual Easter Ball had been given up owing to war conditions, the club will hold a dancing assembly, possibly on Easter Tuesday.

BOWLING

At the Arcade alleys on Friday evening Tobey and Rand defeated Stafford and Welsh in a ten string match. Rand with 400 was the only one rolling well. The scores:
Tobey—27, 75, 74, 96, 82, 104, 96, 86, 76—877.
Rand—32, 97, 97, 92, 100, 98, 107, 100, 97, 95—900.
Stafford—30, 100, 82, 102, 90, 81, 82, 84, 80, 88—876.
Welsh—M, 86, 93, 90, 88, 101, 82, 83, 90, 82—895.

KAISER SCHOOL BOOKS ARE BANISHED IN NEW YORK

New York, March 1.—Principals in New York city high schools today pieced to enforce a ruling of Dr. Gustave Straubenzeller, acting superintendent of schools, forbidding the use of all German language text-books here before employed in the class rooms. Pictures of the Hohenzollern family, the words and music of "Deutschland über Alles" and insulting references to German rulers and their handling of governmental affairs are contained in the books.

NO TAX ON PAY FOR EMPLOYEES IN SERVICE

Washington, March 1.—Business men paying salaries of employees who entered the Army or Navy, or who serve the Government at nominal pay may deduct the amount in figuring income or excess profit taxes, the internal revenue bureau ruled today.

DRYDEN TO MEET KILONIS

Bill Dryden, who seems to be pestored by the wrestlers who are knocking here with their challenges, says that they will all have to wait their turn. He has arranged for his next match John Kilonis, who on Thursday defeated Cyclone Bess in Boston and who on March 4th wrestles Mike Yokel the middle weight champion of the world at Atlantic City. Next to him is Cyclone Bess who has been defeating the best men in the country and later he is to take in turn Charles Metro of Cincinnati who is a wrestler of known ability.

This leaves Young Lundin, Brown and Co. several weeks to wait before they will be even considered. These men, who seemed to have jumped out here, have a queer idea of being able to force Dryden to meet them, but with the program mapped out and the Burns-Bass match for Monday night the fans are satisfied that they will get the best.

There is a wide interest in the Cyclone "Bess-Drank" match at Frohmah's hall on Monday evening. These are the two best light heavy weights in the country and the match will be a wildcat affair and one that should pack the house. It is a big match to pull off in this city and the fans appreciate Dryden's paying the big sum that he has for the attraction.

Charles Pagle of the Egelston bowling team of the Boston City League has been matched to meet Archie Walsh now of the U. S. Naval Reserve at Jamaica Plain. The match will be rolled next Tuesday night. The entire receipts will be turned over to the Navy Welfare Fund.

Much interest is being shown in the coming basketball game between the Boston Navy Yard Five and the Boston Marines on March 15. The winner will be recognized as the champions of the First Naval District.

Eddie McGorrie, the well known middleweight boxer is anxious to stage a comeback and western promoters are after Joe Egan to meet McGorrie.

Watch out for the Tigers to make a strong bid for the American League pennant this coming season," writes Louis A. Dougher in the Washington Times. Mr. Dougher admits the White Sox are the favorites for the flag, but states that if Faber is drafted the Tigers will beat them out. Boston, of course, is picked to finish third.

Joe Weilling and Johnny Griffiths will meet in a 12-round match Monday night at Akron, Ohio.

Joe Egan of Boston is now on his way to Columbus, Ohio, where he will box Bryan Downey of that city.

Nine big deals have been made in the big leagues since Dec. 11:
December 11—Philadelphia Nationals sold Pitcher Grover Cleveland Alexander and Catcher Bill Killefer to the Cubs for $50,000 and Pitcher Mike Predgoest and Catcher "Pichies" Dillhoefer.
December 14—Athletics sold Catcher Wally Pelfrey, Outfielder Amos Strunk and Pitcher Joe Bush to the Red Sox for $40,000 and Pitcher Vean Gregg, Catcher Chester Thomas and Outfielder Bill Kopp.
December 14—Browns sold Outfielder Bert Shorten and Infielder Dr. Lavan to Washington for $15,000 and Pitcher Bert Galla.
December 20—Phillies traded Outfielder Dede Paaskert to the Cubs for Cy Williams, another outfielder.
January 4—Braves traded George Tyler to the Cubs for Larry Doyle and Catcher Arthur Wilson.
January 5—Giants traded Charles Herzog to the Braves for Larry Doyle and Jess Barnes, the pitcher.
January 9—Brooklyn traded George Cuthbert and Casey Stengel for Pitchers Mamie and Grimes.
January 10—Athletics traded McIndist to Red Sox.
February 28—Cady, Gardner and Walker go to Athletics in exchange for Melinda.

Bollier Rayton will meet Kid Dione in a wrestling match at Lewiston, Me., Saturday night. Rayton agreed to throw his man away in an hour. Rayton, who weighs 115 pounds, recently challenged Bill Dryden. Part of

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Regardless of the price you pay for a Ford you cannot equal its value in five times the amount it cost you. There is no car in the world that has as many service stations with such a complete stock of parts as the Ford. This is one point in its favor that is becoming more and more important each day as transportation on the railroads grows worse. Just think of the other makes of cars that wait three and four weeks for parts. This trouble is eliminated when you buy a Ford.

THIRD LIBERTY BOND NEXT MONTH

(By Associated Press)
Washington, March 1.—The first anniversary of the United States' entrance into the war, will be taken as the date for the opening of the third liberty bond sale. Sec. McAdoo tonight announced that fact with the statement that the rate of interest, the amount of the issue and the convertibility will be decided later. That the amount will not be determined until additional legislation is secured. This would indicate that the issue will be for more than $3,000,000,000 which is the balance of the bond issue that Congress has provided for. The sale of certificates of U. S. Indebtedness bearing 4 1/2 interest indicate that the bonds will be at that rate.

SERVE AND SAVE.

The very first Commandment for winning this war is to Enlist—Serve and Save.

Get busy. Facilitate this duty of yours "on all fronts." Center your whole enthusiasm in it. Drive your very heart interest into it. But don't forget to Enlist—Serve and Save.

Men who look down never get much of an idea of the sky, where the stars are set, or of the flag with the stars and stripes. And the fellow who doesn't hitch all his wagons to the Stars and Stripes now will never get very high up. Get your eyes off the ground. Look ahead. Act today. Procrastination might mean the Ruination of the Nation. So

Enlist—Serve and Save.

Make yourself believe that no other man in the Nation has the ability and power that is concentrated in you—that no other man is needed as much as you are by the Nation—that winning the war is possible only with you in the Service. Then forget yourself and remember the Nation, and

Enlist—Serve and Save.

It is easy for us to win if you do not fail us. You will win by helping America win. You will fail if you don't. And a failure in this World Crisis will walk alone, shunned and despised forever. So

Enlist—Serve and Save.

Remember that to win we need Speed. The things delayed or put off is the thing undone. Enlist today—Serve America—Save Democracy. Set your eyes ahead. Clench your fist—close your jaw, and Enlist in the United States Naval Reserve Force.

500 Men are wanted and needed at once for Armed Guard Duty in the U. S. Naval Reserve Force. Active duty only during the War. Good Pay. Two months' pay yearly after the War. Generous family allowances. Insurance at very low cost. Education. Rapid advancement. Good meals. Dry places to sleep. Seaman's rating when you enlist. Ten weeks of splendid training before going on regular duty. Address Enrolling Officer, U. S. N. R. F., Portsmouth, N. H. Any information you desire will be promptly sent you upon request.

The day of harsh physics is gone. People want mild, easy, laxatives. Doan's Regulators have satisfied thousands. 30c at all stores.

It was the usual pleasant gathering and Manager Patten served an excellent menu.

OBITUARY

Mr. Walter Philbrick

Mr. Walter Philbrick, one of the best known and respected citizens of Kittery passed away on Friday night at his home in that town, after an illness of a few weeks with pneumonia.

He was a native of Kittery, born Oct. 1848. Although but a lad when the Civil War came he enlisted when he was old enough. But owing to his age did not get actual service. He learned the ship carpenter's trade at a time when the ship yard of the Piscataqua river contained the best workmen in the country and he worked at this trade for many years, first on some of the best of the old wooden ships and later at the navy yard being employed for many years as a ship carpenter.

He was a thorough and faithful workman. Of late years he has been employed in the Boat Shop at the navy yard, where among his shop mates he was held in high esteem. He was a man of genial and retiring nature, but a true friend and a good citizen and his death is a loss to the town.

He was a member of long standing of Riverside Lodge, I. O. O. F. and he leaves a wife and one son, Homer Philbrick of Kittery, a brother, James, also of Kittery, and one sister, Mrs. John E. Leavitt of Quincy, Mass.

Austin James MacKenzie

Died Feb. 28th at the Naval hospital. Arthur James MacKenzie, aged 17 years, 8 months, 14 days. The remains were sent to Albany, N. Y., Saturday morning for services and interment under the direction of O. W. Ham.

Harold Stephen Martin

Harold Stephen Martin, the 3-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael L. Martin, passed away yesterday afternoon at the home of his parents, 39 Partridge street.

BOOTLEGGER ARRESTED

Wallace England, charged with being a bootlegger, was taken to Concord this afternoon for a hearing before U. S. Commissioner Hodgman. He admitted selling liquor to enlisted men.

Some strong attractions are booked for this city next week, with the big wrestling bout on Monday and a high class boxing card for Tuesday, as well as other attractions later in the week.

HOUSING WILL BE PERMANENT

Taking Over of Hotels Will Only Be Temporary.

Any taking over of hotels or boarding houses in this section to house ship workers will be a temporary expedient only. The plans for Portsmouth and Kittery are of a permanent character. Homes that will meet with every requirement will be erected and rented or sold to the occupant. The immediate needs will be to house men while these homes are being built.

It is more than likely that the hotels at Kittery Point will be the first taken. These will be used to care for the men coming to the navy yard and action will probably be taken within a week.

TO FILL SERVICE FLAG WITH 500 STARS

A live, enthusiastic, determined squad of sailors are making a "win the war" drive for 500 men for the U. S. Naval Reserves in this section of the First Naval District, opening in Dover today. Four slingers will put over the latest song hits with a punch and also one song written by two of the sailors.

A large service flag for 500 stars, one for each man enrolled in their battle banner. On each star will be embroidered a man's name and the flag will go to the section commander's office, as an everlasting symbol of the splendid spirit of the men in this section.

The speakers fill every one with enthusiasm and patriotism, everything they say rings true and no audience can side-step the facts they state. Real American spirit is the outstanding feature of the recruiting rallies. The 500 men must be recruited by March 31, and that ends this unusual opportunity to enroll in the most attractive branch of the U. S. naval service.

MASS MEETING METAL TRADES WORKMEN

At the regular meeting of the Metal Trade Council of Portsmouth, held Friday evening, March 1, 1918, Harry L. Hartford of the Machinists' Union and president of the council, together with Richard Cooney of the Coopers' Local, were elected as delegates to attend the big labor convention to be held March 17 at Philadelphia, Pa. All the shipbuilding industry of the Atlantic coast will be represented at this convention, and it is of such vital interest to the union workmen in Portsmouth and vicinity that a large mass meeting will be held tomorrow evening (Sunday, March 3, 1918, at 8 o'clock in Moose hall, where speeches will be made by the representatives, so that the members of all the local labor unions will be made thoroughly acquainted with the purpose of this convention.

TWO VACANCIES IN THE POLICE DEPARTMENT

With the entrance of Officer Smart in the aviation service, there are two vacancies in the police force. The commissioners meet Monday evening to go over applications. There was a time when there would be a stampede to secure a policeman's billet, but not so now. The desire to be a policeman is growing less every day. Other vacancies are hinted.

NOTES FROM FREEMAN'S PT.

Engineer Roberts and his force are certainly "making the dirt fly." Vice President Barrows was at the plant today going over more important building operations.

Engineer, Army of the steam plant is planning to enlarge the same. Fifteen more 5-ton trucks will be added to the engineering equipment. Chief of Police Quinn has a fine looking body of men on guard duty. The branch telephone exchange will be in operation the first of the week.

E. F. McDade of Seattle, Wash., has joined the staff of Manager George S. Howins.

Nardini and Miller of the restaurant have taken new homes in Portsmouth.

Superintendent of Hulls, H. N. Douglass, and Mrs. Churchill are passing the week-end at Bath.

The various houses situated on the grounds are being repaired.

"THE FINISHED MYSTERY"

Of late there has appeared newspaper items about a book entitled "The Finished Mystery," said to contain seditious matter.

We, the Associated Bible Students, who have circulated this book in this vicinity, deny that it contains seditious matter unless the plain Bible statements that the Kingdom of Christ for which we have long prayed, "Thy Kingdom come they will be done on earth," which will shortly supplant the present governments, can be construed as seditious matter, and if such statements are seditious, then every Bible contains seditious matter.

OBSEQUIES

Mrs. Grace C. Putnam.

The remains of Mrs. Grace C. Putnam, who died in Cambridge, on Feb. 27, were brought here today on the 10.45 train and placed in the receiving tomb under direction of O. W. Ham.

MAKES PRETTIEST STORM IN YEARS

March came in like a lion and is due to go out like a lamb, according to the old fashioned almanacs. Portsmouth residents awoke yesterday morning to find that a mantle of snow had covered the earth during the night.

Trees, presented the prettiest picture of the winter, every branch and twig being outlined with white and drooping under the weight of damp snow.

The snow clung to the telegraph poles and wires, and, in many cases, the snow proved to be too heavy and many branches were broken off.
